I then go me could throw the two rooms into one if we wanted
to. But - I don't know what we will do. We may not do anything before you will be home in April.
You father spoke of waiting till Ben Gorse was done and having the same Carpenter
come over again.
If you send your your last was received yesterday. Glad to hear you were feeling better. Emma J was here last night and said she thought she would go down Friday after noon, stay at Mrs Tullis over night, and meet you at the Dr's Saturday morning, as we suppose that is the day you generally go there. She said she might possibly stay over Sunday and if she did would like to have you come into Oakland and visit with her. You did not say how much money you wanted, but according as I have kept the run of your affairs in my head you will not need a

C. G. and you can tell her how much you have on hand; then I can tell about how much to send you the next time. Well the land is gone and the papers all made out.
I had to go down town yesterday to sign the deed. I don't know what we will do to the inside of the house, if we have a door cut-through like Mrs. Phillip's, the chimney will have to be torn down and built over again , and the room papered over.

That would be quite an expense.
I have thought some of having ~~of having~~ a portion of the partition between the rooms we are using now, for sitting room and parlour cut away to make a space the size of folding doors would be, and
