Dear Alice

Your father went down to Kern again last Friday night and came back this morning.
He wanted to see that man Tausig who has been writing to him about my section.
He told him he could go on to it and have all he could raise, and he (Tausig) said he would do so. I am in hopes now that every thing will be all quiet there for a little while.
Emma Jan's house was started Tuesday and I suppose your father and I will have about all we can do for the next two months to watch the carpenters. It is raining to day so they cannot work, Charlie Howard is dead. Gilbert went up there last Saturday and came back Monday night.

Before he went he came for Frank and wanted him to work in the store while he was gone; when he came back he said he wanted him for the rest of the week, so I am getting up at 6 o'clock every morning to get breakfast for him. He sold his cow for $30, and I suppose he will have some new clothes now as soon as he is at leisure to buy them. We have got Dr Beech's bill; it is $46, he had $50 charged on the book, but said he would call it 45, I am making over E. G.
Morgan, have it fitted and ready to sew on; she has been writing and is in a hurry to go home so I will close and let her put

If not delivered within 10 days, to be returned to
