

The funeral is to be prograte. I am
seeing carpet-
rags now, think
I shall have enough
done for my carpet-
to-morrow night. It
did not do anything
but cook meat, and
wash dishes, the milk
Mr. Mr. Gregory was here, and did not go out - any where for nine days. The day they returned away
I got out the shirt-car and went over to see your Grandmother
she has sun-branny
quills - a hard kind
with the grip and with the well eye.

the sale. I am sorry to hear that you are not improving faster. If you find that you cannot study I think you had better get a leave of absence for a year and leave it so you could go back if ^{you} should want to, and at the end of the year if you did not want to go back there would be no harm done. I finished the drape some time ago, and found I had eleven wheels more than I could use, as I could not get as many wheels on the first row as we calculated on; so I had plenty silk and some left over. I have not seen it on the picture, but she was much pleased with it. Mr Black died yesterday, and is to be buried to day. The paper this morning said he died of blood poisoning resulting from an ulcerated tooth.

If not delivered within 10 days, to be returned to
