

Berkeley Calif.

Jan. 18, 1891.

Dear Alice:

Your French ex. comes Friday Jan. 29, at 9-30 A.M., Botany the Wednesday preceding at 1-30 P.M. Latin, Tuesday, Jan. 26, afternoon, History same day, forenoon. English the following Saturday in the morning. In English we have read the Elizabethan Plays, all of them. We will not be examined on the 'Arnold's Manual of Prose Literature' but only on our reading not including Beowulf. We will have finished the History of France this week. In Latin Dr. Richardson said he would hold us responsible for the Sapphic, Alcaic, and 4 Aeolic adonic meters. Stanzas Gram. Prose 402-420 also if we happen to know any of the less common ones we may have an optional question to answer in place of some other. As I don't remember just what ode we left off with I will commence with Book I the VI, VII, VIII, IX, X, XI, XII, ~~XIII~~, XIV, XV, XVI, XVII, XVIII, XXIV, XXXIV, XXXV, XXXVII, and XXXVIII, Learn the last ode, Book II, I, II, III, VI, VII, ~~X~~, XIII, XIV, XV, XVI, XVII, XVIII. Everyday he has some one read an ode metrically or put the scheme on the board. I will only have four eyes as we have none in German.

I will be glad to see you down soon. Why didn't you put your number on your letter. I have forgotten it I think. I will number this by guess almost and hope it will be all right. I guess I will get it from Mr. Waterman as I also have a letter from Edith Clayes to you to mail as they did not know it and I promised to fill it out and mail it. We are both well now, and hope you are the same. Those who took the Latin Subj. got their things today, I'm glad I did not take it. Well as I want to write a letter I will close. Hoping to see you soon I am Your friend

Oliver B. Spoker.