Dear Wife

Yours at hand as usual I have not much news to write we are all well with the exceptions of colds. it is now raining quite hard. I received a letter from Emma in answer to the one I wrote her. she said I wrote her the same as you did in regard to Frank's Wife. so it seems we are alike in some respects. you did not write what Gram Merrill wanted to have done with her interest. you had better ask her she may be offended if I don't fix it to suit her. you seem to think you are improving I hope you are

I have great faith in the Doctors Devil if you can stand him. try it again if you can possibly stand it. I feel almost shure it will cure you. do try it again. I want you home so bad. it dont seem possible that ^{we} ought to be separated the rest of our days on this earth for what few sins we have committed. my boys have not arrived yet expect them Tuesday. Alice is in an awful way to know when she is going to California to live with Mat & Uncle Frank. of course you will let her know when you write her ~~her~~ ⁺⁺⁺⁺ ever Yours B. Watsons

Dear Mother:-

I will write you a few lines to let you know how I am getting along. I got 94 percentage last month and I am again in my class. It has been thundering very hard to-day and raining to.
I will close as Pa's letter is on the other side of the sheet. Write soon. From your son, Freddie.
