Dear Wife

I began to despair of ever getting a letter from you but received one this morning. we have had some very heavy rains here every one has got bad colds. our children have all got colds. I keep the girls out of school but Freddie has. it keeps me pretty busy to keep the children in the house your mother is not feeling very well but is some better this morning. the weather is clear and fine this morning will come down as soon as possible B. Watrous

Mary Jane sent two pictures and has kept one
