

Chimmar Camp July 21st

Dear Wife

I have just returned from Cuperopolis with 62 Hogs go to Columbia to night with some the rest go to Jacksons Landing Jamestown I take the Balance to Tull ochs full to feed I will try and get home the last of next week if nothing happens the little bag is very convenient I prize it very much my shirt is giving out I have just parted with one of the sleeves and the balance of it looks like Jimms Blankets that he used to have at the Eagle Bird there is no news to write you ~~to~~ I believe the Scarlet fever has nearly subsided in this vicinity

Yours in haste
